Idaho: Knob Hill Inn Sun Valley in Ketchum

Knob Hill is a charming European-style resort that offers incredible views of the nearby Smokey and Boulder Mountain ranges. It's an excellent spot to hit up in either summer (when the area is lush and green) or winter (for skiing and a general ethos of winter wonderland).

Every couple deserves a trip to their own personal paradise, whether that means holing up in a cozy mountain lodge, kicking back beachside with a frozen cocktail, or checking into a resort with top-tier amenities like open-roof cedar showers. The most fabulous getaways offer a little bit of everything: natural wonder, unmatched indulgence, true comfort, and (for those who dare) a touch of thrill.

Every state has something different to explore together: Illinois offers riverside horseback riding and hot air balloon sight-seeing. Maine comes with an ice bar and gorgeous views of the white-water surf. And Connecticut? Connecticut has a suite inside a lighthouse.

Below, our favorite romantic getaways—couples massages, campfires, and in-suite picnics included.
